DOYLE|COFFIN
ARCHITECTURE

Timeless design is an approach to architecture that combines the collective wisdom of the past with the most modern materials and techniques to create a residence of quality, elegance and practicality. Great design transcends style and embodies enduring beauty.

Doyle | Coffin designs express understated elegance and an enduring quality to enhance a residential setting. Through a collaborative partnership with our clients, we translate your needs and desires into custom home designs that will provide comfort and contentment for generations to come.

a tailored fit Creating a home that is unique for each client requires a balance of creativity and craftsmanship. Our architects provide intelligent solutions for space, form and function. We adhere to a rigorous and disciplined process in transforming a blueprint into a home that is a source of pride for the owner.

making a house a home Attending to geographic details and using indigenous materials ensure that your home is filled with natural light and takes advantage of inspiring views. We incorporate quality millwork and architectural details and take the time to carve out useful spaces and calming retreats that are essential to making a house a home.

renovations and restorations Breathing new life into an existing dwelling through architecture, which integrates the old with the new, adds appeal and improves the flow, form and function of interior and exterior spaces. Doyle | Coffin designs express the homeowner's vision of adding value to a home, rejuvenating it or restoring it to its original grandeur.

collaborative process Working as a partner with each client is our goal, because we know that your home is your castle. From initial design ideas to working through budgets and schedules, we manage the project and facilitate key decision making every step of the way, and we do this with great respect for each client's needs.

refined

Antique Colonial

Addition and Renovation

The master plan focused on the lifestyle of the new owners of this 1770 colonial saltbox. A rear entry, mudroom, laundry and storage areas were added off the kitchen to connect the main house to the back yard.

reimagined

Antique Colonial

Addition and Renovation

A new wing added a three-car garage, home office, additional bedrooms, exercise and playrooms.

Key features include a new forecourt creating a clear entry sequence, a vegetated pergola and sunroom with upper deck.

transformed

Antique Colonial

Addition and Renovation

The addition of a new wing features a hall of hinged French doors with side lights, tongue and groove bathroom walls, built-in office desk and shelves, closet armoires and cubbyholes.

Victorian Guest Cottage

New Construction

Period colors grace this interpretation of a Second Empire Victorian home, now the guesthouse for an estate. Authentic architectural details include an elevated central projecting porch, copper ridge cresting, finials, weathervane, painted brackets, corbels and shed dormers.

majestic

Victorian Guest Cottage

New Construction

Viewed from the bottom looking up, the stairwell and center hall occupy the central volume of this new home allowing natural light throughout the interior. Ornamented balusters, support columns and molding as well as roof windows are true to Second Empire architectural detail.

decorative

Victorian Guest Cottage

New Construction

A second floor covered balcony is accented by rich trim work and a unique design pattern on the balusters that is typical of Second Empire architectural ornamentation. A bay window with lattice trim on the upper glass graces the staircase.

striking

Victorian Guest Cottage

New Construction

Architectural detailing melds with modern elements in a kitchen that is both functional and whimsical. Ornamented archways create workspaces, and a multi-color tile backsplash, exquisite cabinetry and wood flooring work harmoniously within the context of the Second Empire design.

enduring

Greek Revival

Addition and Renovation

The entrance portico with simple columns is typical of Greek Revival style. Interior rough-hewn support beams, wide plank flooring and lighting incorporated into hanging rods add authenticity and charm to this 1810 farmhouse.

comforting

Greek Revival

Addition and Renovation

Although previously renovated, this Greek Revival farmhouse lacked a true master suite. The new addition includes a spacious bedroom set off by a bead board coffered ceiling, marble surround fireplace, and built-in window seats, shelves and cabinets.

organized

Greek Revival

Addition and Renovation

Organization reigns in this expansive walk-in closet with center dressing table storage. Cabinetry details include a built-in stepping stool, pullout sections and window seat, which make this the ultimate room of one's own.

fine

Greek Revival

Addition and Renovation

Architectural details in this elegant yet understated bath include an arched doorway and alcove, which houses a restored claw foot tub, features that make this master bath suite a soothing respite.

Yellow House Kitchen Renovation

This kitchen inspires both cooking and entertaining. Doyle Coffin Architecture partners with Pennville Custom Cabinetry to create storage and work spaces for each client's needs and dreams. A built-in hutch and center island help make this kitchen the heart of the home.

enduring

Yellow House Kitchen Renovation

The custom built-in storage and display units crafted by Pennville Custom Cabinetry represent extraordinary wood-working and uncompromising quality. Their progressive designs install beautifully, blend skillfully with the style and flow of the architecture, and will last for generations.

stately

Peaceable Estates

New Construction

Modern comforts and Georgian Revival features create an ideal setting for a family living in the countryside.

serene

Peaceable Estates

New Construction

Architectural details connect the past to present-day practicality and enhance the surrounding terrain.

rejuvenated

Lake View

Renovation

Striking new elements of cedar, copper and stone breathe new life into a waterfront property.

haven

Lake View

Renovation

A pattern of columns and pickets creates a restful retreat for family and friends.

gracious

Lake View

Renovation

A traditional exterior is complemented by simple contemporary lines and rich wood finishes in the home's foyer.

open

Country Villa

Renovation

Traditional elements together with native materials create a residence of understated style.

crafted

Country Villa

Renovation

Custom built from an original design that takes advantage of natural light, this hideaway room is the heart of the home.

authentic

Gothic

Historical Restoration

Archival engravings of this storied house provided the authentic detail for the fancy trim, overhangs, roof dimensions and pillars that enhance a town's historic district.

magnificent

Gothic

Historical Restoration

Restoring original architectural details that had been lost over time make this house a Main Street showstopper once again.

grand

Gothic

Historical Renovation

Sculpted trim and ornate balusters sweep through the staircase accentuating the vertical style of Gothic architecture.

splendid

Gothic

Historical Renovation

Original period stained glass is a focal point against understated tile, marble and glass surfaces in the master bath suite.

whimsical

Gothic

Historical Renovation

By combining traditional elements with contemporary appointments, surprises abound around every corner giving each room a wow factor.

understated

West Lane

Renovation

Cottage-style architectural details and materials blend with a contemporary décor to transform a small house into an extraordinary country retreat.

unexpected

West Lane

Renovation

The impressive kitchen, featuring modern south-western-inspired materials and appointments, surprises and complements a simple cottage architectural design.

hewn

Chestnut Woods

Renovation

This contemporary design applies modern materials and a striking form to create a structure of rugged integrity.

simple

Chestnut Woods

Renovation

Wood, stone and metal allow the home to complement its natural surroundings conveying a sense of honest beauty.

strong

Chestnut Woods

Renovation

Bright, open spaces and a timber tower evoke the outdoors with a distinctly contemporary quality...like being on vacation in this full-time residence.

inviting

Lake House

New Construction

An informal mix of Adirondack and cottage design defines this lake house, which boasts superb water views from every room.

enduring

Lake House

New Construction

Stone, shingles, natural lumber and glass create a lakeside home that is at once casual, contemporary and timeless.

unique

Lake House

New Construction

Tailored architectural features including an Arts and Crafts balustrade and a recessed clerestory create drama and allow a flood of natural light.

exquisite

Fairfield's Estate

Renovation

Uncompromising luxury and functionality are expertly crafted into this classically designed colonial home featuring a new pool and formal gardens.

restorative

Fairfield's Estate

New Construction

Along the lines and style of the main dwelling, a pool house was designed to provide accommodations that shelter and restore.
